WITHIN 30 MILES OF VILLA FORCES

Colonel Dodd's Regiment of U. S.
Troopers Almost in Striking Distance, it is Reported

FUNSTON BELIEVES IT TRUE

Main Cavalry Division Under Pershing
May Make a Junction With Dodd's Men Sunday

GAINING ON VILLA

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, March 18.—General Gavira at Juarez today said he had word Villa is 120 miles south of Casas Grandes and that the American cavalry is steadily gaining on the bandit.

MORMONS OUT OF DANGER

El Paso, Texas, March 18.—Danger to 400 American Mormon colonists at Colonia Dublan was removed today by the arrival of a portion of Colonel Dodd's cavalry column there. Dublan is south of Casas Grandes. The colored tenth cavalry regiment, reported to have been the first to enter Mexico south of Hachita early Thursday, was understood to have composed the Dublan relief party.

San Antonio, Texas, March 18.—Colonel Dodd's column is now within thirty miles of Villa's forces in the Galeana district, according to latest information at General Funston's headquarters. An engagement, if Villa decides to make a stand, may occur within a few hours. This information came from Carranza General Gavira and is believed by Funston to be correct though the latter has had no direct report. Funston believes a clash will soon come. The cavalry division of the main column under General Pershing is within supporting distance of Dodd's forces and it is probable a junction will take place Sunday.

The march of Dodd's forces from Hachita to their present position, slightly more than 100 miles, is said by Funston to have been one of the finest marching records in American history. The average speed was fifty miles a day and that over rough desert country.

Led by Mormons, Dodd's horsemen were in the saddle almost continuously for sixty hours, spurred on by reports that Villa threatened to massacre the colonists. The Mormon scouts were valuable aid for they knew every water hole and trail.

Wireless reports gave no mention of casualties or clashes with Villistas.

Romance Of Comely Texas Girl To End Here This Week May Go Awry

A romance starting in El Paso, Texas, four months ago, and which was to have culminated in the marriage of Miss Eulalia Frans and Derby Kiser this week in Rushville, probably is smashed, due for the most part to the non-arrival of Mr. Kiser in this city to claim his bride.

Miss Frans, a typical Texas girl of some twenty years, arrived here three days ago to await the arrival of her intended. She made inquiries among the relatives of Derby Kiser, but she failed to learn anything that would indicate when he would arrive. Derby Kiser is a son of the late William Kiser and has been in the west and southwest for the past few years.

ANOTHER DIVORCE SUIT

This time One Comes From Hancock County to Rush

The divorce of Columbus Jackson against Mary R. Jackson reached the local circuit court this morning on a change of venue from Hancock county. The parties reside near New Palestine. Jackson alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and claims that his wife frequently remained away from home for several days at a time. The complaint states that Mrs. Jackson was contemplating filing suit for divorce and conveyed some of her property to a sister in order to get alimony from him.

TWO MACHINES HIT HEADON AT CORNER

Occupants Miraculously Escape Injury When Blacklidge and Moore Autos Collide.

BOTH WERE BADLY DAMAGED

As Glen Moore rounded the corner out of East Fifth street south into Main yesterday evening between five and six o'clock, his machine, crashed headon into Allan Blacklidge's, which was going north in Main, and that occupants of neither automobile were hurt is considered most remarkable by those who arrived on the scene soon after the accident. The force of the impact turned Mr. Moore's machine clear around until it was facing north.

No one was thrown from either of the machines. Lowell Moore, little son of Glen Moore, was riding with his father, but escaped with a slight bruise on his head. The Moore machine was the worst damaged of the two. One front wheel was torn off, the radiator and windshield broken and one fender badly bent. The Blacklidge machine was also smashed up considerably. Miss Hazel McCoy of Greensburg and Lawrence Root were riding with Mr. Blacklidge.

DIES AT FORT WAYNE

Mrs. Sam Young received a telegram telling of the death at Fort Wayne of her cousin Mrs. Elizabeth Corbin, age about seventy years, a native of this county. She was the daughter of William Pruitt and left here about twenty years ago. Mrs. Corbin formerly lived about 4½ miles north of Rushville. Her home was in Gary, but she had been visiting in Fort Wayne.

NEXT TEN YEARS TO DECIDE FATE

South America Will Either Be Christian or Heathen Continent, Says Dr. J. M. Taylor

CONFERENCE CLOSURES HERE

Evangelist Tells Audience at M. E. Church of Terrible Conditions —Dr. Woods Speaks

"And why am I telling you all this in a missionary address," said the Rev. James M. Taylor last evening after he had given a number of vivid facts concerning the financial, commercial, educational and religious conditions in South America, the land where he was a missionary. "It is because I want to show you that value of this great continent and that importance of what I mean when I say, that the next ten years will decide the religious fate of South America. The people have reached the stage where they are going to accept the religion of Jesus Christ or they are all going to become infidels. This change will take place within ten years, and you see the responsibility that rests with the Christian world for saving this people."

The Rev. Mr. Taylor in his address last evening held his audience not only because of the interesting story he had to tell of his life as a missionary, but also because he was a forceful orator, had a magnetic personality and gave a soul-stirring address. The climax was reached with the service last night which completed the missionary conference lasting two days.

The revival meetings, however will continue throughout next week, beginning each evening at seven-thirty. Special selections by the chorus choir and the junior choir under the leadership of Clarence E. Lane, were included in the song service which preceded the addresses of the evening. Dr. D. E. Bacon presided over the meeting, introduced the speakers and thanked the members of the church for the hospitality which they had extended to the visitors.

"Three hundred years ago, some European people left their country and arrived on the shores of North America with their families and their Bibles," Dr. Taylor said. "They came that they might educate their children and worship God according to their own consciences. God smiled upon this crowd of people and although we are one of the youngest nations, only 6½ of our population is illiterate."

"Fourteen years before that, a company of people from the same race set sail for South America. They did not take their families or their Bibles, for they were seeking gold and not salvation. They did not establish schools, they taught that the Bible is the most damned of books. They raised millions of illegitimate children until today between 65 and 87 per cent of their population is of illegitimate birth and between 65 and 92 per cent of their population is illiterate. There is only one class of people responsible for this and that is the organization of men known as bachelors. Money has been voted for the education of the children, but the children have never received it. And yet, when we see the result of the lack of Bible education, when they take the Bible out of our public schools, we stand with our fingers in our mouths and let them take it out. We ought to read, vote, pay; we ought to stir up our brain pans whether we have any sense in them or not and protect our children."

"South America is not one coun-

ANOTHER LOCAL CASE AFFIRMED

Supreme Court Sustains Judge Blair in Allowing $2,100 Damages For Injury to Race Horse

INJURED IN CAR ON SIDING

Ruling on Grounds Appellant's Briefs do Not Present Errors in Correct Manner.

The supreme court yesterday affirmed another case from the Rush circuit court, making the second case this week that the higher courts have upheld from this county. The case affirmed yesterday was the amage suit of Irving G. Richey against the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railway in which Irving received $2,100.

The case was affirmed on the grounds that the appellant's briefs do not present the errors in the manner in which the points and authorities are presented. The case was heard by Judge Alonzo Blair on October 3, 1911. Judge Blair returned a special finding of facts and conclusions of law, ending by awarding the plaintiff $2,100.

The suit involved the shipment of the race horse "Bessie V" from this city to New Haven, Connecticut. The horse was bought of the late George Weeks. While the car in which the horse was to be shipped in was on a siding here a cut of freight cars smashed into the car. The horse was thrown to the floor of the car and badly bruised.

Judge Blair held that negligence on the part of the railway company was responsible for the accident. "Bessie V" was valued at $2,500, and after the accident was worth only $400, according to the special finding of the court. It was pointed out that Weeks was acting as agent here for Richey, the purchaser and had the right to engage a car in which to ship the horse.

The opinion on the case was written by Judge Lairy and is as follows:

The Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad Company vs. Richey. Rush C. C. affirmed. Lairy, J (1) There are numerous errors assigned, but the case is affirmed on the ground that the appellant's briefs do not present the errors in the manner in which the points and authorities are presented. The court gives the rule for points and authorities in Rule 22, and says: "The portion of appellant's brief designated as points and authorities covers thirty-six pages of the brief and contains sixty-six propositions. These propositions are not arranged under separate heads stating or indicating the errors relied on for reversal, but they are numbered consecutively from beginning to end without any attempt to classify them under the various heads as required by Rule 22."

Pupils of Four Township Schools Write For Diplomas

The first of the eight year examinations were held today. Those held today were for Noble, Orange Union and Walker township and the balance of the townships will hold their examinations on April 15. The pupils who receive conditions in two subjects will have an opportunity to work off the conditions on May 20 when a special examination will be held in Rushville. The Union township examination today was conducted in the teachers examination room at the court house. All of the examinations were well attended and from the indication the class of eight year graduates this year will be large.

ASKS POLICE TO GET HER CANARY

Unidentified Woman Makes Request That is Not Listed in Category of Unusual Ones.

DIDN'T DIVULGE HER NAME

"Hello! Is this the police department? Well, I've located my canary bird that was stolen about Christmas and I want to know how to go about recovering it."

This in part was the conversation over the telephone yesterday at police headquarters. It was a woman talking but Chief of Police Yaakey could not catch the name she gave. The woman insisted that she could identify her canary and wanted immediate action on the part of the police.

The problem was too great for Yaakey so he referred the woman to Prosecutor Stevens. As yet an appeal has not been made to the state's attorney, but as the grand jury meets next Wednesday the bird case may get a hearing. The police have had many requests but this is the first time the theft of a canary has been called to their attention.

SOUNDS OPPOSITION OF THE REPUBLICANS

Minority Leader Mann Says Administration Bill Falls Short of What it Should Be

PRESIDENT APPROVES IT

Washington, March 18.—Congress today got some idea of the fierce and confused struggle it has entered upon in framing preparedness legislation. Endorsement by the president of the Hay bill was announced by the author from the floor of the house. "It's his bill," said Hay.

At about the same moment the senate military affairs committee approved and reported to the senate the Chamberlain bill—different in principle as well as form.

Republican Leader Mann, taking the floor in the house, sounded radical objections to the president's plan, forecasting the minority's party opposition.

"The bill falls far short of what ought to be provided at this time. After having troops on the border for four years in contemplation of what has occurred no troops were ordered across the border until the house passed the resolution."

ENCOURAGED BY WATSON TREND

Friends And Supporters of Former Congressman Are in Much Better Spirits Today

THEY PRAISE HAY'S ACTION

Sentiment For Him For Short Term is Shown in Many Places Where Petitions Are Passed

Friends and supporters of James E. Watson were very much encouraged today by the rapid change in the senatorial situation. They felt that the way was clear for Mr. Watson to become the Republican nominee to succeed Senator Shively. Even though a candidate is brought out against him, Republicans here feel that he can overcome it, because State Chairman Hays was the only really serious opposition he had.

Of course, many pointed out today, the best thing to do for all concerned would be for the convention to nominate both New and Watson by acclamation. Republicans were praising the action of Will H. Hays in stepping out of Watson's way and predicted that he would be heard from later.

Shelby county Republicans yesterday let it be known in no uncertain terms where they stood on the senatorial question. In reply to a telegram of inquiry sent out by State Chairman Will Hays, similar to the one he sent to most county chairmen and a number of party workers, they called Mr. Hays by telephone and told him that the sentiment in Shelby county was just like it had been in the primary when Watson carried it easily. The leaders said they had inquired among Republicans of the county carefully.

In announcing yesterday that he would accept the state chairmanship again, State Chairman Hays made the following announcement:

"I will not be a candidate for the Republican nomination for the vacancy in the senate. It is my opinion that my present duty to my party lies in the other direction. My work as chairman is but half done and I can only conclude that that work should first be finished and that duty discharged. I would submerge any probable preferment without any hesitancy whatever."

"My interest in politics arises from my belief that such activity is a citizen's duty and the best means of serving the country in ordinary periods. My firm conviction has always been that the Republican party is the best instrument to that end, and wherever, therefore, I can best serve the party it where I propose to be."

"To the innumerable friends who, in their generosity, have urged my candidacy in such overwhelming manner I can not express the depth

Killing the Golden Egg Goose

The merchant who attempts substitution for a well known brand is killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

The merit of the brand and the advertising behind it brought in a customer.

The inferior substitute has probably driven that same customer away for good.

Incidentally, it has injured a reputable manufacturer.

The customer is right in avoiding the store that makes a practice of offering "something just as good."

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Say a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

WHY not give your lad the same training?

"When I was a growing lad, and came upon many words in my reading that I did not understand, my mother, instead of giving me the definition when I applied to her, uniformly sent me to the dictionary to learn it, and in this way I gradually learned many things besides the meaning of the individual word in question—among other things, how to use a dictionary, and the great pleasure and advantage there might be in the use of the dictionary. Afterwards, when I went to the village school, my chief diversion, after lessons were learned and before they were recited, was in turning over the pages of the 'Unabridged' of those days. Now the most modern Unabridged—the NEW INTERNATIONAL—gives me a pleasure of the same sort. So far as my knowledge extends, it is at present the best of the one-volume dictionaries, and quite sufficient for all ordinary uses. Even those who possess the splendid dictionaries in several volumes will yet find it a great convenience to have this, which is so compact, so full, and so trustworthy as to have, in most cases, little to be desired."—Albert S. Cook, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of the English Language and Literature, Yale Univ. April 28, 1911.

Thin Women Surprised

And one day there comes to most of us the conviction that we, too, must have help—help that rebuilds, restores, replaces the nervous energy that has been so recklessly expended.

It is then that the kindly, tonic influence of Tonoline is appreciated. For after all, that need of help is often but the nerves' need of nourishment.

And when Tonoline brings to the starved cells and tissues the very foods they hunger for, in just the form that is most easily taken up, it is not long before relief comes.

We are receiving letters daily from grateful people telling how Tonoline has reconstructed cell and tissue, enriched the blood, produced keener appetite and better slumber and infused the whole system with new vigor.

Prof. B. writes: "I have gained 50 pounds since taking Tonoline and am now at just the weight I desired to be. I can recommend Tonoline to any thin person."

For women who can never appear stylish in anything they wear because of their thinness this remarkable treatment may prove a revelation. It is a beauty maker as well as a form builder and nerve strengthener.

PAIGE

The Standard of Value and Quality

Approved—by Thousands of Users

As we remarked several weeks ago—

"The Paige 'Six 46' is a good car—not merely because we say so—but because its owners have definitely established this goodness in the grueling tests of more than a full year's road work."

If you stop and consider the matter for one minute, you will agree that no automobile can be termed a success until it has been tried and approved by owners.

Factory tests are all right—and very necessary so far as they go.

But a car only proves itself under the strain and stress of day in and day out service.

So, there is one little point that it may be well for you to bear in mind.

This year there are a number of "experimental" six cylinder cars on the market.

These cars, with their new "theories" and new engineering features, may—in time—prove altogether practical in every way.

But until that time comes—until these sixes have been thoroughly "tried out" in the hands of users—the prudent man will be inclined to buy the car with a tangible record of accomplishment behind it.

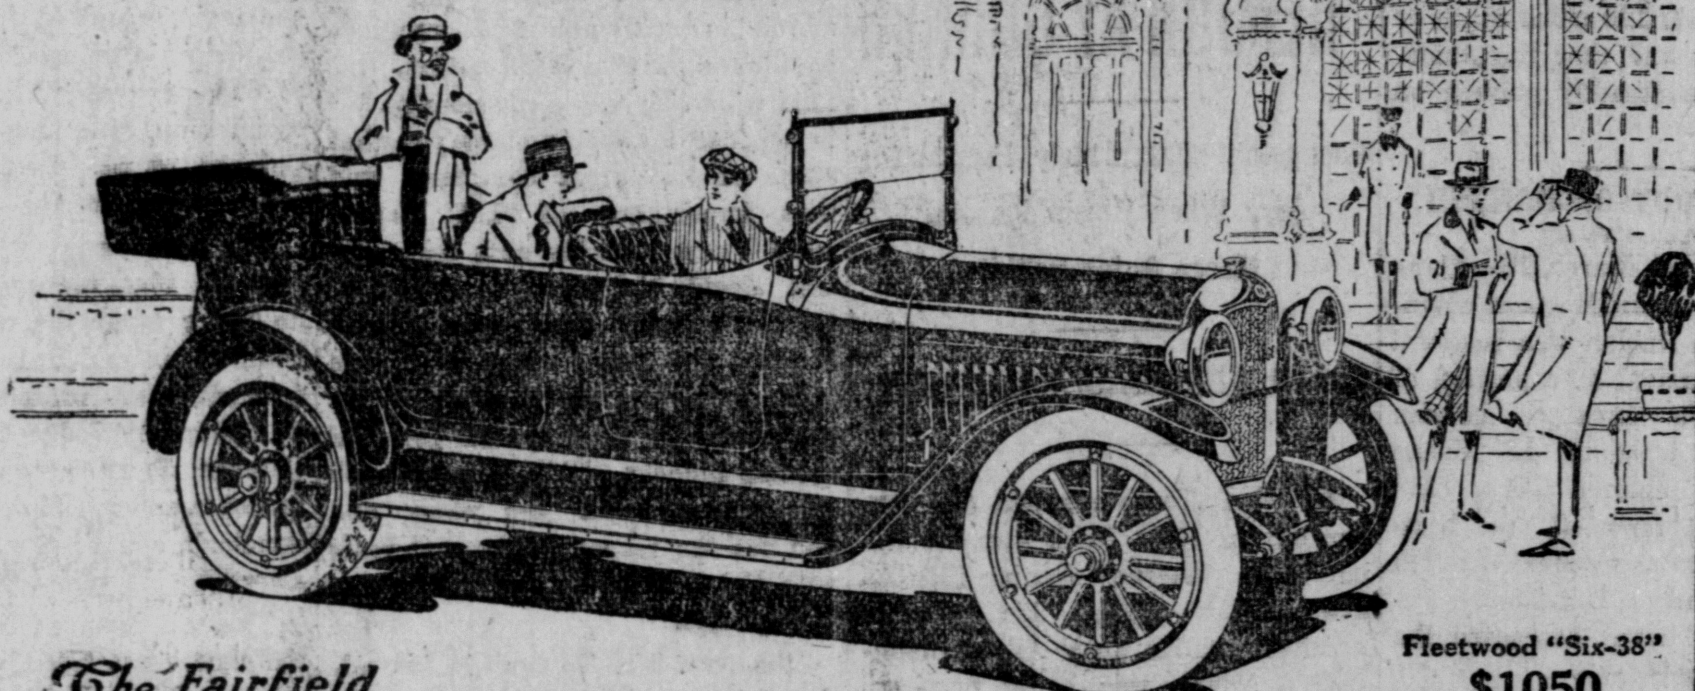

The Paige "Six 46" is an eminently safe automobile investment.

JEANNETTE KLING

The most notable thing about Jeannette Kling, who will appear in recital of "Across the Border," at the Graham Annex auditorium Monday night, is that her manner of reciting an entire play is unique and differs entirely from that of any other reader. The doors will be open at 7:30 and the program will start promptly at 7:45. It was announced this morning that enough tickets had been sold to pay expenses so that all sold until Monday and taken in at the door that night will be clear for the visiting nurse fund, for which the recital is given.

Each scene in Miss Kling's recitals, it is stated, each exit and entrance, is given so accurately, each character is portrayed so vividly, that the persons become living, moving realities, and the entire production a vivid bit of life which invariably creates the impression that one is actually seeing the play.

A Brilliant Idea

The Richmond Palladium is once more allowing its hatred for James E. Watson to get the better of it. It shammed through the primary in lamb's skin but the wolf has broken through. The Palladium devotes three columns to telling how the voters of Indiana have been driving James E. Watson to private life. As a matter of fact Watson was never defeated but once in his life, and that in 1908 when he went down, after his campaign slogan had been stolen from him by Frank Hanly and when he was subjected to all sorts of unfair tactics.

The Palladium apparently believes that it has made a startling revelation when it says (in large black face letters) that there was a majority of 33,000 voters in Indiana who did not want Watson. Quite an idea that was, adding New's and Robinson's votes! Brilliant idea! The Palladium didn't add Robinson's and Watson's votes and find there was a majority of 16,564 voters in Indiana who did not want New. Neither one was the majority candidate. And at the same time, Watson got more first choice votes in Wayne county than New.

Will H. Hays most certainly endeared himself to supporters of James E. Watson when he announced that he would not leap into the race for the short term to succeed Senator B. F. Shively. It was undoubtedly a wise decision for Mr. Hays. He is young both in years and political activity in the state and the future holds much in store for him. The majority of the people have some sense of fair play.

The Indianapolis News undertook to run the Democratic party in Indiana, failed and is now trying to ruin it. The News is apparently going a trial heat in the Republican party now, with the same end in view, but the leaders of the Republican party in the state are undoubtedly too shrewd to pay any attention to the siren song.

What Italy Has Done in the War

The more spectacular operations of some of the other Allies have partly obscured Italy's part in the present war in the eyes of the American public. Italy's anomalous position in being at war with Austria and at peace with Germany has, besides, produced distrust in some of the allied capitals, and the warmth of feeling evoked by Italy's siding with the Entente has given way to a chilled current of doubt and suspicion. Many are asking the question "Why has Italy not declared war on Germany?" or "Why has she not joined France and England in their expeditions in the Near East?"

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for March 18th there is a very illuminating article consisting of excerpts from the British press and translations from French and Italian papers which bring out in a strong light the very important part that Italy has played and is playing in the war.

Other leading articles that will make this number of "The Digest" of great interest are:

God Save the King!—Hoch Der Kaiser!—Vive la France!—Viva l'Italia!

All hails are heard in THE LITERARY DIGEST, as the defenders of Allies and Teutons present their respective sides. The readers of this non-partizan weekly are blinded to no phase of the war's development. Both sides are allowed to offer their cases for approval and Digest readers can judge for themselves without prejudice and with an accurate understanding of every view-point. The same policy of impartial fairness governs THE LITERARY DIGEST'S reports of all our own national problems, both domestic and foreign. Excerpts are taken from the editorial press all over the country to explain every different conception. The man who wants a real understanding of every question of public interest will value the complete information in THE LITERARY DIGEST, regardless of his personal sympathies.

NO DECISION WITHIN A WEEK

Not Expected Vote on Army Bills Can be Obtained Before Seven Days at Least

CHIEF BUSINESS IN CONGRESS

Only One Voice Raised Against Military Preparedness as a National Policy

Washington, March 18.—The most striking thing about the consideration of the army bills in congress which has held the center of the stage since yesterday afternoon, is the fact that only one voice has been raised against military preparedness as a national policy; that of Meyer London of New York, the lone Socialist member of congress.

Amendments to be offered were announced however, and prospects of passing the bill by tonight vanished. It may be a week before a vote is taken.

Congress plunged into national defense legislation. Halting nearly all other business both the senate and house began actual work on army reorganization yesterday afternoon.

The house began debate on the army bill while in the senate the army bill was formerly launched when Senator Chamberlain reported his bill from the committee and announced he would call it up for consideration Monday.

"On a question of this character all America should stand together," was Chairman Hays opening remark as spokesman for the administration in the house. He called it a "reasonable measure."

"It will meet with opposition and those opposed to any defensive legislation and those who think they have not gone far enough," said Hays.

"We have a volunteer system in this country and we have to deal with conditions as they are."

"To have an army of 200,000 men would mean compulsory service. I do not think the country would accept this."

"An army of 250,000 would cost $750,000,000 a year," said Hays. "I do not believe congress is ready to saddle this expense on the country in time of peace. If this bill passes there will be at all times in United States about 50,000 men; the others will be in our possessions. At no time have we had 100,000 men in the army."

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as rational designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer, Mr. A. H. Schrichte. J. B. SCHRICHTE SONS MONUMENTS

WHICH IS BETTER?

A Shoe at a Price or a Shoe of Quality? What does it matter if you pay a few cents per pair more for shoes, and get three months more service on that shoe?

We hear a great deal nowadays about shoes at a price. Any shoe store can sell shoes at a price. That is no trick. It is shoes of quality that stand out so prominent in the long run. Shoes that will give the wearer such satisfaction that they will come back for another pair.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

TRUST the judgment of that greatest of all critics—the American public—and you can't go wrong.

You have noticed, no doubt, that already the Hudson's wonderful new car has received its name from discriminating motorists. They call it simply "THE Super-Six."

People don't say "The HUDSON Super-Six." They at once recognized the fact that here was a car different from anything before known. It is not merely a new Hudson, it is a new idea, a new principle, an absolutely new invention. It stands alone and apart from every other car, and every other motor.

There is a wide gulf between this car and every other that motor-car owners know. They saw this at once, and they call the car "THE Super-Six."

Note the conversation of people you run across day by day. Listen to motorists in the club, the garage, the smoking-car, on the street, in their homes. Observe the language of manufacturers of and dealers in other cars. See how THE Super-Six dominates. See how instantly it is recognized. Notice that no one needs the prefix of Hudson before the name. It is known already the world over as "THE Super-Six," a new discovery, a new invention, the greatest of all present automobile engineering feats.

When a graceful, powerful, brilliant car slips easily by other cars on city streets and country roads the driver of the losing car will apologize for "eating dust," for being passed on the hills or in difficult traffic, by saying "It can't be helped." That was a Super-Six.

Hereafter you will find—note this prediction—that in speed and endurance contests, on level road or steep hill climb drivers will say: "I can pass everything on the road, climb better on the hills, go through traffic easier than any car I know—except one."

That one is THE SUPER SIX!

CLASS PITCH-IN SUPPER

One hundred and twenty-five members of Dr. C. H. Gilbert's Sunday School class of the Christian church dined together last evening when they enjoyed a pitch-in supper in the church basement. The long tables where the guests were seated were laden with an elaborate supper. The supper was made more enjoyable by the strains of music that floated in the room from the pretty music furnished by the Sunday School orchestra. Mrs. Derby Green sang a beautiful solo "Mother March." Sociability featured the hours following when the ladies and their families joined together in one of their usual good times.

The members of the Falmouth basketball team and their lady friends were guests last evening at a dinner party given by Dr. and Mrs. Walther at Glenwood. The supper was served in buffet style to the 30 guests who filled their plates at the laden table. Two courses comprised the bounteous dinner. Reading, given by Miss Mary Hinchman, piano solos, by Miss Dora Saxon, and duets by Curtis and Lavone Scholl were numbers on the informal program, which was furnished. The guests, enjoyed several exciting card games before the delightful affair drew to a close. The hostess was graciously assisted by Mrs. Newhouse and Mrs. Britt during the evening.

SEXTON AID SOCIETY

At the regular weekly meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Sexton Christian church held on Thursday in the hall, a large number of the members were present to participate in the business meeting. The third anniversary of this organization which as proved an aiding factor in the church work in that community was observed last Monday. During the business session the following officers were elected for the coming year; president, Mrs. Virgil Longfellow, vice-president, Mrs. Orville Porter; secretary, Mrs. Omer Thompson; treasurer, Mrs. George Kendall. The out-going officers are: president, Mrs. Elsworth Kiser, vice-president, Mrs. Will Wright; secretary, Mrs. Ode Winkler, treasurer, Mrs. Orville Porter.

CLASS PARTY

The meeting of the Always Present Class of the Main Street Christian church, which was held with the teacher, J. P. Frazee, last evening was well attended, there being thirty-three girls in the party. An excellent program began the affair and was composed of the following numbers:

Sentence prayers.
Roll Call.
Song by class.
Piano solo by Miss Phyllis Dean.
Book review by Miss Gladys Chadwick.
Piano solo by Miss Gertrude Wilkinson.
Vocal solo by Miss Charlotte Norris.
Violin solo by Miss Gladys Titworth.
Reading by Miss Hermoine Hughes.
Reading by Miss Eva Young.
Following the business meeting, the girls enjoyed a social good time together and refreshments were served.

At the meeting of the Monday Circle which is to be held with Mrs. J. C. Sexton at her home in North Main street on Monday afternoon, Mrs. Demarchus Brown will lecture on "Maeterlinck, the Mystic."

ST. PATRICK'S DANCE

All the jollity and fun which characterizes the celebration of St. Patrick's day, overflowed last evening at the dance given in the Phi Delta Theta hall by Dale Fisher. The numerous out-of-town guests soon became acquainted and entered into the informality of the affair. Sherman's Society orchestra furnished good music which was made especially so with the feature dances in which Dr. Hale Pearsey sang several cabaret solos. There were about thirty-five couples enjoying this affair and among them the Misses Huldah Pepper, Grace and Mable Cain, Dorothy Voltz, and Corinne Shrader, Elsie Barnard, of Connorsville; Ruth Harvey, Marie Foster of Newcastle; Mrs. Mary Doyle of Indianapolis; Erman Schmidt and James Medlin of Richmond; Fred Sharp of Newcastle; Harry Williams of Connorsville, and Darrel Wendling of Indianapolis.

SERIES OF PARTIES

In two successive evenings the members of the Thornberry Club were royally entertained at the pretty country homes of two of their members. On Wednesday evening, the merry assemblage met with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hungerford. Rook and other lively games amused the guests during the evening which was closed with the service of light refreshments.

And on Thursday evening, practically the same company of guests were entertained at the home of Samuel Mahan. Another evening of merriment was furnished for the guests. Those who attended one or both of these affairs are Mr. and Mrs. Alva Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hilligoss, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shockey, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Pate, the Misses Mildred Hungerford, Frances Mull, Luella Mauzy, Mary Hungerford, Frances Thompson, Ida Redden, Bertha Halterman, Lena Hungerford, Elvira Mull, Louisa Mahan, Fannie Redden, Maxine Hungerford, Letha Hungerford, Nellie Mull, Thelma Shockey, Rema Mahan, Edith Hungerford, Vivian Kemple, Nellie Myers and Lot Redden, Watson Miller, Paul Hungerford, Harry Mull, Clarence Weidner, Cecil Barlow, Reed Mull, Henry Mauzy, Robert Hasty, Frank Barlow, William English, Bert Redden, Russel Orme, Newton Halterman, Cuban Downs, Foster Hilligoss, Earl Hungerford, Fred Mahan, Herman Hilligoss, Howard Hungerford, Berlin Pate, Frank Webb, and Glen Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hasty, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kellam, Mr. and

CALICO BALL

The novel and unique plans which were so cleverly worked out at the Calico Ball given by the ladies of the Social Club last evening was one of the factors in the dance which was a round of fun from beginning to end. The small packages which the gentlemen received upon entering the dance hall was found to contain neckties made of fabrics which looked surprisingly familiar, and their partners for the grand march was the lady whose frock matched the tie. Frank Capp, president of the club for the past year, and his partner Miss Helene Whitesides of Franklin, who according to the rule was gown in a simple pink Norfolk suit, led off in the grand march. The unusual scene of the ladies in fresh and attractive spring dresses of calicos, and lawns instead of evening gowns was a pretty one as they and their partners made the figures in the grand march. With their customary life and vim, Mitchell's orchestra played for the program of dances. Favor dances featured the evening, one of the cleverest of which found the men behind a black curtain with only their shoes displayed. From these, the ladies chose their partners. In another, tiny favors of fans, St. Patrick's Day souvenirs and other trinkets were passed out in pairs and matched for partners. A one course supper was served in the dining room adjoining the dance hall during the series of dances. Those coming form a distance for this charming affair were the Misses Helene Whitesides, of Franklin; Jeannette Clark, of Muncie; Laura Goyert, of Greensburg; Miller Hamilton, of Indianapolis; Ed Doll, of Connorsville; Don Miler, of Anderson; John

LONTZ KNIFED; LEAVES HIS PARTY

Late Democratic Candidate For Congressional Nomination in District is "Sore."

MANY TO SUPPORT COMSTOCK

Large Number of Democrats Who Were Lontz Boosters Will Form Club For Opponent

That John M. Lontz of Richmond, "knifed," as his friends charge, by Democratic leaders in the sixth district in his race with Finly Gray for the congressional nomination, after much pressure was brought to bear to get him into the contest, is no longer affiliated with the Democratic party is the statement made in Friday's Richmond Palladium. It says the announcement was made by some close friends of Lontz, who is now touring the south. Continuing the Palladium says:

It was also announced that henceforth Mr. Lontz will be enrolled in the ranks of Wayne county's impressive army of independent voters.

It has also been learned that quite a number of Democrats who supported Mr. Lontz in the primary contest are to follow his example in bidding a fond farewell to the party they have hitherto loyally supported and worked for. Plans are now on foot for the organization of what is to be known as the Independent Democratic Comstock club, to support the candidacy of Judge D. W. Comstock, Republican congressional nominee against Finly Gray in the fall campaign.

Friends of Mr. Lontz justify his action in severing his connections with the Democratic party. One of his supporters said today:

"For years Mr. Lontz has given his time and his money freely to the support of the Democratic party in Wayne county. He has cheerfully paid Democratic campaign deficits out of his own pocket, time after time; year after year he has taken much time from his business affairs to campaign for his party's candidates and not once did he ask a favor of the party whose interests he held so close to his heart. He cherished no personal political ambitions.

"Early this winter a number of leading Wayne county candidates began to exercise pressure on Mr. Lontz to induce him to contest against Finly Gray for the Democratic nomination. Mr. Lontz agreed with them that Gray discredited his party and that his renomination would mean certain Democratic defeat in the district next fall but he flatly refused to be a candidate against him. Mr. Lontz pointed out that he had no desire to go to congress, that his family opposed his entering into politics, and that his business interests demanded his personal attention.

"The pressure was not relaxed, however. He was bombarded with requests for a reconsideration of his decision. The climax came when a formal demand, signed by John Harper, Democratic county chairman, was served upon him. In this communication it was pointed out to him try, but is thirteen countries, mined with gold, many of them have diamond and silver mines, great forests of hardwood and you can't imagine the great herds of stocks that are raised there. Argentina alone has 62 million head of cattle."

The Rev. M. Taylor dwelt upon the vast wealth of South America, showing there is more unexplored territory in that continent than all the rest of the world. "They say the Amazon river is in a certain place and they don't know anything about it. The next president that hasn't anything to do could easily discover another river down there and become famous. Too, all the territory there is in a livable zone and they can raise any kind of plants whether they demand hot houses or not," he declared.

"Why do I dwell upon the weather of this place? Because the eyes of the world are upon it. People are flocking there from all corners of the globe. There will soon be an immense population there and the religion is soon to be settled. In some districts cannibalism is still practiced, in others the natives are semi-civilized and pray to a bo-constrictor as you do to Jesus Christ; while in the cities, which are as wealthy and modern as any American city, the women can cut a dress and a dozen handkerchiefs from a yard of cloth as easily as one of you women could, which shows they are fast becoming civilized.

The Rev. Taylor then showed the terrible way in which Christianity was represented to these people; that it was a compliment to say to them, "I am delighted to hear you are not a Christian," for Christian in the sense they see it illustrated is the kind that has "ruined homes, robbed the hearts of wives of children of their education. It is merely baptized paganism. We have to tell the people that the Bible stands for sanctity, and will restore to them the things that their religion has robbed them of. These infidels are glad and ready to answer the call of their hungry hearts and come to Jesus Christ if they can see religion as it really is." Following this, stereopticon slides, representing conditions and types of people in South America were shown.

In his address, Dr. Fred Woods who is a returned missionary from India told some very pathetic stories of his experiences in the foreign field. He dwelt upon his regret at hearing that some women in this country were beginning to doubt the Bible, while he had seen that only the Bible could save the heathen women. He told of the eagerness of the heathens to hear Jesus Christ and to spread it to their friends. His story was a vivid and convincing one.

of my gratitude and affection. This evidence of friendship means more to me than all else. My word to them and my sincerest wish is, that they all join with men in bringing the complete Republican victory which is so important for the country's welfare.

As further indication of the sentiment that was crystallizing for Watson, the following is cited from the Liberty Herald, as an example of the belief in many quarters that Watson should be the nominee:

Union County Republicans are going on record by signing a petition to the State Central Committee, wherein they state they believe it to be for the best interests of the party to nominate Harry S. New for the long term and James E. Watson for the short term, as Indiana representatives in the United States Senate. This is the expression of opinion from this county for both New and Watson adherents here. This county and district were in favor of Mr. Watson's nomination, and now that the death of Senator Shively makes two nominations necessary, Mr. Watson's claims are entitled to due consideration.

We want New and Watson both in the senate. They made a magnificent race, and on the face of returns both have a right to go before the state convention.

In all fairness and justice, and according to the wording of the primary law, no nomination to the senate was made at the recent election.

The candidacy of Mr. Will H. Hays, chairman of the State Committee, is incipient, and is regarded as ill-advised in this quarter. A candidate for the senate must first be considered by the people of the state, and the fact that Mr. Hays' name has not been in the minds of the people for the high office of senator, his claims, worthy as they are, can not be seriously considered, and party interests demand his elimination.

The wonderful speaking campaign of James E. Watson, and the vote that was given him, is evidence of the people's wishes, and now that it is possible to do so, let the Republicans nominate Mr. New for the long term and Mr. Watson for the short term, and thus smooth out all wrinkles and uncertainties, and elect both men in November.

The Republicans of Indiana will take care of Will Hays in the future. Indiana went Republican at the recent primary, and will go stronger still in November.

nia. She is quite comely and has attracted attention not only because of her looks, but from the fact that she is a girl who traveled all of that great distance to marry.

It is stated that she still maintains hopes that Derby Kiser will put in his appearance here and that the wedding will be carried out as planned. There are others, however, who believe that Miss Frans was duped into coming here and that Kiser never really had any intentions of coming here to marry her. His present whereabouts are unknown. Miss Frans has wired to him that she has arrived here safely, but so far has not received an answer to her message.

Upon arrival here she visited the court house, inquiring of the Kiser family. She was put in communication with one family of Kisers, but they were not Derby's people. She also inquired about some property Derby Kiser has here. The property in question is in litigation and he has no title to it. Miss Frans, while

Colonel Dodd's Regiment of U. S. Troopers Almost in Striking Distance, it is Reported

FUNSTON BELIEVES IT TRUE

Main Cavalry Division Under Pershing May Make a Junction With Dodd's Men Sunday

GAINING ON VILLA

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, March 18.—General Gavira at Juarez today said he had word Villa is 120 miles south of Casas Grandes and that the American cavalry is steadily gaining on the bandit.

MORMONS OUT OF DANGER

El Paso, Texas, March 18.—Danger to 400 American Mormon colonists at Colonia Dublan was removed today by the arrival of a portion of Colonel Dodd's cavalry column there. Dublan is south of Casas Grandes. The colored tenth cavalry regiment, reported to have been the first to enter Mexico south of Hachita early Thursday, was understood to have composed the Dublan relief party.

San Antonio, Texas, March 18.—Colonel Dodd's column is now within thirty miles of Villa's forces in the Galeana district, according to latest information at General Funston's headquarters. An engagement, if Villa decides to make a stand, may occur within a few hours. This information came from Carranza General Gavira and is believed by Funston to be correct though the latter has had no direct report. Funston believes a clash will soon come. The cavalry division of the main column under General Pershing is within supporting distance of Dodd's forces and it is probable a junction will take place Sunday.

The march of Dodd's forces from Hachita to their present position, slightly more than 100 miles, is said by Funston to have been one of the finest marching records in American history. The average speed was fifty miles a day and that over rough desert country.

Led by Mormons, Dodd's horsemen were in the saddle almost continuously for sixty hours, spurred on by reports that Villa threatened to massacre the colonists. The Mormon scouts were valuable aid for they knew every water hole and trail.

Wireless reports gave no mention of casualties or clashes with Villistas.

ANOTHER DIVORCE SUIT

This time One Comes From Hancock County to Rush

The divorce of Columbus Jackson against Mary R. Jackson reached the local circuit court this morning on a change of venue from Hancock county. The parties reside near New Palestine. Jackson alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and claims that his wife frequently remained away from home for several days at a time. The complaint states that Mrs. Jackson was contemplating filing suit for divorce and conveyed some of her property to a sister in order to get alimony from him.

TWO MACHINES HIT HEADON AT CORNER

Occupants Miraculously Escape Injury When Blacklidge and Moore Autos Collide.

BOTH WERE BADLY DAMAGED

As Glen Moore rounded the corner out of East Fifth street south into Main yesterday evening between five and six o'clock, his machine, crashed headon into Allan Blacklidge's, which was going north in Main, and that occupants of neither automobile were hurt is considered most remarkable by those who arrived on the scene soon after the accident. The force of the impact turned Mr. Moore's machine clear around until it was facing north.

No one was thrown from either of the machines. Lowell Moore, little son of Glen Moore, was riding with his father, but escaped with a slight bruise on his head. The Moore machine was the worst damaged of the two. One front wheel was torn off, the radiator and windshield broken and one fender badly bent. The Blacklidge machine was also smashed up considerably. Miss Hazel McCoy of Greensburg and Lawrence Root were riding with Mr. Blacklidge.

DIES AT FORT WAYNE

Mrs. Sam Young received a telegram telling of the death at Fort Wayne of her cousin Mrs. Elizabeth Corbin, age about seventy years, a native of this county. She was the daughter of William Pruitt and left here about twenty years ago. Mrs. Corbin formerly lived about 4 1/2 miles north of Rushville. Her home was in Gary, but she had been visiting in Fort Wayne.

—Mrs. Mary Cowan of Milroy visited friends here today.

NEXT TEN YEARS TO DECIDE FATE

South America Will Either Be Christian or Heathen Continent, Says Dr. J. M. Taylor

CONFERENCE CLOSES HERE

Evangelist Tells Audience at M. E. Church of Terrible Conditions —Dr. Woods Speaks

"And why am I telling you all this in a missionary address," said the Rev. James M. Taylor last evening after he had given a number of vivid facts concerning the financial, commercial, educational and religious conditions in South America, the land where he was a missionary. "It is because I want to show you that value of this great continent and that importance of what I mean when I say, that the next ten years will decide the religious fate of South America. The people have reached the stage where they are going to accept the religion of Jesus Christ or they are all going to become infidels. This change will take place within ten years, and you see the responsibility that rests with the Christian world for saving this people."

The Rev. Mr. Taylor in his address last evening held his audience not only because of the interesting story he had to tell of his life as a missionary, but also because he was a forceful orator, had a magnetic personality and gave a soul-stirring address. The climax was reached with the service last night which completed the missionary conference lasting two days.

The revival meetings, however will continue throughout next week, beginning each evening at seven-thirty. Special selections by the chorus choir and the junior choir under the leadership of Clarence E. Lane, were included in the song service which preceded the addresses of the evening. Dr. D. E. Bacon presided over the meeting, introduced the speakers and thanked the members of the church for the hospitality which they had extended to the visitors.

"Three hundred years ago, some European people left their country and arrived on the shores of North America with their families and their Bibles," Dr. Taylor said "They came that they might educate their children and worship God according to their own consciences. God smiled upon this crowd of people and although we are one of the youngest nations, only 6 1/2 of our population is illiterate."

"Fourteen years before that, a company of people from the same race set sail for South America. They did not take their families or their Bibles, for they were seeking gold and not salvation. They did not establish schools, they taught that the Bible is the most damned of books. They raised millions of illegitimate children until today between 65 and 87 per cent of their population is of illegitimate birth and between 65 and 92 per cent of their population is illiterate. There is only one class of people responsible for this and that is the organization of men known as bachelors. Money has been voted for the education of the children, but the children have never received it. And yet, when we see the result of the lack of Bible education, when they take the Bible out of our public schools, we stand with our fingers in our mouths and let them take it out. We ought to read, vote, pay; we ought to stir up our brain pans whether we have any sense in them or not and protect our children."

"South America is not one coun-

ANOTHER LOCAL CASE AFFIRMED

Supreme Court Sustains Judge Blair in Allowing $2,100 Damages For Injury to Race Horse

INJURED IN CAR ON SIDING

Ruling on Grounds Appellant's Briefs do Not Present Errors in Correct Manner.

The supreme court yesterday affirmed another case from the Rush circuit court, making the second case this week that the higher courts have upheld from this county. The case affirmed yesterday was the amage suit of Irving G. Richey against the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railway in which Irving received $2,100.

The case was affirmed on the grounds that the appellant's briefs do not present the errors in the manner in which the points and authorities are presented. The case was heard by Judge Alonzo Blair on October 3, 1911. Judge Blair returned a special finding of facts and conclusions of law, ending by awarding the plaintiff $2,100.

The suit involved the shipment of the race horse "Bessie V" from this city to New Haven, Connecticut. The horse was bought of the late George Weeks. While the car in which the horse was to be shipped in was on a siding here a cut of freight cars smashed into the car. The horse was thrown to the floor of the car and badly bruised.

Judge Blair held that negligence on the part of the railway company was responsible for the accident. "Bessie V" was valued at $2,500, and after the accident was worth only $400, according to the special finding of the court. It was pointed out that Weeks was acting as agent here for Richey, the purchaser and had the right to engage a car in which to ship the horse. The opinion on the case was written by Judge Lairy and is as follows:

The Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad Company vs. Richey. Rush C. C. affirmed. Lairy, J. (1) There are numerous errors assigned, but the case is affirmed on the ground that the appellant's briefs do not present the errors in the manner in which the points and authorities are presented. The court gives the rule for points and authorities in Rule 22, and says: "The portion of appellant's brief designated as points and authorities covers thirty-six pages of the brief and contains sixty-six propositions. These propositions are not arranged under separate heads stating or indicating the errors relied on for reversal, but they are numbered consecutively from beginning to end without any attempt to classify them under the various heads as required by Rule 22."

EIGHT YEAR EXAMS. HELD

Pupils of Four Township Schools Write For Diplomas

The first of the eight year examinations were held today. Those held today were for Noble, Orange Union and Walker township and the balance of the townships will hold their examinations on April 15. The pupils who receive conditions in two subjects will have an opportunity to work off the conditions on May 20 when a special examination will be held in Rushville. The Union township examination today was conducted in the teachers examination room at the court house. All of the examinations were well attended and from the indication the class of eight year graduates this year will be large.

ASKS POLICE TO GET HER CANARY

Unidentified Woman Makes Request That is Not Listed in Category of Unusual Ones.

DIDN'T DIVULGE HER NAME

"Hello! Is this the police department? Well, I've located my canary bird that was stolen about Christmas and I want to know how to go about recovering it."

This in part was the conversation over the telephone yesterday at police headquarters. It was a woman talking but Chief of Police Yakey could not catch the name she gave. The woman insisted that she could identify her canary and wanted immediate action on the part of the police.

The problem was too great for Yakey so he referred the woman to Prosecutor Stevens. As yet an appeal has not been made to the state's attorney, but as the grand jury meets next Wednesday the bird case may get a hearing. The police have had many requests but this is the first time the theft of a canary has been called to their attention.

SOUNDS OPPOSITION OF THE REPUBLICANS

Minority Leader Mann Says Administration Bill Falls Short of What It Should Be

PRESIDENT APPROVES IT

(By United Press.)

Washington, March 18.—Congress today got some idea of the fierce and confused struggle it has entered upon in framing preparedness legislation. Endorsement by the president of the Hay bill was announced by the author from the floor of the house. "It's his bill," said Hay.

At about the same moment the senate military affairs committee approved and reported to the senate the Chamberlain bill—different in principle as well as form.

Republican Leader Mann, taking the floor in the house, sounded radical objections to the president's plan, forecasting the minority's party opposition.

"The bill falls far short of what ought to be provided at this time. After having troops on the border for four years in contemplation of what has occurred no troops were ordered across the border until the house passed the resolution."

ENCOURAGED BY WATSON TREND

Friends And Supporters of Former Congressman Are in Much Better Spirits Today

THEY PRAISE HAY'S ACTION

Sentiment For Him For Short Term is Shown in Many Places Where Petitions Are Passed

Friends and supporters of James E. Watson were very much encouraged today by the rapid change in the senatorial situation. They felt that the way was clear for Mr. Watson to become the Republican nominee to succeed Senator Shively. Even though a candidate is brought out against him, Republicans here feel that he can overcome it, because State Chairman Hays was the only really serious opposition he had.

Of course, many pointed out today, the best thing to do for all concerned would be for the convention to nominate both New and Watson by acclamation. Republicans were praising the action of Will H. Hays in stepping out of Watson's way and predicted that he would be heard from later.

Shelby county Republicans yesterday let it be known in no uncertain terms where they stood on the senatorial question. In reply to a telegram of inquiry sent out by State Chairman Will Hays, similar to the one he sent to most county chairmen and a number of party workers, they called Mr. Hays by telephone and told him that the sentiment in Shelby county was just like it had been in the primary when Watson carried it easily. The leaders said they had inquired among Republicans of the county carefully.

In announcing yesterday that he would accept the state chairmanship again, State Chairman Hays made the following announcement:

"I will not be a candidate for the Republican nomination for the vacancy in the senate. It is my opinion that my present duty to my party lies in the other direction. My work as chairman is but half done and I can only conclude that that work should first be finished and that duty discharged. I would submerge any probable preferment without any hesitancy whatever."

"My interest in politics arises from my belief that such activity is a citizen's duty and the best means of serving the country in ordinary periods. My firm conviction has always been that the Republican party is the best instrument to that end, and wherever, therefore, I can best serve the party it where I propose to be."

"To the innumerable friends who, in their generosity, have urged my candidacy in such overwhelming manner I can not express the depth of my appreciation."

Killing the Golden Egg Goose

The merchant who attempts substitution for a well known brand is killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

The merit of the brand and the advertising behind it brought in a customer.

The inferior substitute has probably driven that same customer away for good.

Incidentally, it has injured a reputable manufacturer.

The customer is right in avoiding the store that makes a practice of offering "something just as good."

Romance Of Comely Texas Girl To End Here This Week May Go Awry

A romance starting in El Paso, Texas, four months ago, and which was to have culminated in the marriage of Miss Eulalia Frans and Derby Kiser this week in Rushville, probably is smashed, due for the most part to the non-arrival of Mr. Kiser in this city to claim his bride.

Miss Frans, a typical Texas girl of some twenty years, arrived here three days ago to await the arrival of her intended. She made inquiries among the relatives of Derby Kiser, but she failed to learn anything that would indicate when he would arrive. Derby Kiser is a son of the late William Kiser and has been in the west and southwest for the past few years.

It was while he was working for a railroad running through El Paso that he became acquainted with Miss Frans. According to the story as related here, they became engaged and the wedding date was set for some time this week in Rushville. Miss Frans came to Rushville Wednesday and at once started to find some of his relatives. This was easily accomplished but there was none who could tell her anything of Derby. In fact most of his relatives had not heard of him for several months and did not even know he intended coming home.

Miss Frans claims to be the owner of a ranch in New Mexico, a short distance from El Paso and states that her parents reside in Califor-

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Savory glass of hot water, with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

WHY not give your lad
the same training?

"When I was a growing lad, and came upon many words in my reading that I did not understand, my mother, instead of giving me the definition when I applied to her, uniformly sent me to the dictionary to learn it, and in this way I gradually learned many things besides the meaning of the individual word in question—among other things, how to use a dictionary, and the great pleasure and advantage there might be in the use of the dictionary.
Afterwards, when I went to the village school, my chief diversion, after lessons were learned and before they were recited, was in turning over the pages of the 'Unabridged' of those days. Now the most modern 'Un-abridged'—the NEW INTERNATIONAL—gives me a pleasure of the same sort.
So far as my knowledge extends, it is at present the best of the one-volume dictionaries, and quite sufficient for all ordinary uses. Even those who possess the splendid dictionaries in several volumes will yet find it a great convenience to have this, which is so compact, so full, and so trustworthy as to leave, in most cases, little to be desired."—Albert S. Cook, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of the English Language and Literature, Yale Univ. April 23, 1911.

Thin Women Surprised

And one day there comes to most of us the conviction that we, too, must have help—help that rebuilds, restores, replaces the nervous energy that has been so recklessly expended.

It is then that the kindly, tonic influence of Tonoline is appreciated.
For after all, that need of help is often but the nerves' need of nourishment.

And when Tonoline brings to the starved cells and tissues the very foods they hunger for, in just the form that is mostly easily taken up, it is not long before relief comes.

We are receiving letters daily from grateful people telling how Tonoline has reconstructed cell and tissue, enriched the blood, produced keener appetite and better sleep and infused the whole system with new vigor.

Prof. B. writes: "I have gained 50 pounds since taking Tonoline and am now at just the weight I desired to be. I can recommend Tonoline to any thin person."

For women who can never appear stylish in anything they wear because of their thinness this remarkable treatment may prove a revelation. It is a beauty maker as well as a form builder and nerve strengtheners.

PAIGE

The Standard Value and Quality

Approved—by Thousands of Users

As we remarked several weeks ago—

"The Paige 'Six 46' is a good car—not merely because we say so—but because it's owners have definitely established this goodness in the grueling tests of more than a full year's road work."

If you stop and consider the matter for one minute, you will agree that no automobile can be termed a success until it has been tried and approved by owners.

Factory tests are all right—and very necessary so far as they go.

But a car only proves itself under the strain and stress of day in and day out service.

So, there is one little point that it may be well for you to bear in mind.

This year there are a number of "experimental" six cylinder cars on the market.

These cars, with their new "theories" and new engineering features, may—in time—prove altogether practical in every way.

But until that time comes—until these sixes have been thoroughly "tried out" in the hands of users—the prudent man will be inclined to buy the car with a tangible record of accomplishment behind it.

The Paige "Six 46" is an eminently safe automobile investment.

Will Give Recital

JEANNETTE KLING
The most notable thing about Jeannette Kling, who will appear in recital of "Across the Border," at the Graham Annex auditorium Monday night, is that her manner of reciting an entire play is unique and differs entirely from that of any other reader. The doors will be open at 7:30 and the program will start promptly at 7:45. It was announced this morning that enough tickets had been sold to pay expenses so that all sold until Monday and taken in at the door that night will be clear for the visiting nurse fund, for which the recital is given. Each scene in Miss Kling's recitals, it is stated, each exit and entrance, is given so accurately, each character is portrayed so vividly, that the persons become living, moving realities, and the entire production a vivid bit of life which invariably creates the impression that one is actually seeing the play.

A Brilliant Idea

The Richmond Palladium is once more allowing its hatred for James E. Watson to get the better of it. It shammed through the primary in lamb's skin but the wolf has broken through. The Palladium devotes three columns to telling how the voters of Indiana have been driving James E. Watson to private life. As a matter of fact Watson was never defeated but once in his life, and that in 1908 when he went down, after his campaign slogan had been stolen from him by Frank Hanly and when he was subjected to all sorts of unfair tactics.

The Palladium apparently believes that it has made a startling revelation when it says (in large black face letters) that there was a majority of 33,000 voters in Indiana who did not want Watson. Quite an idea that was, adding New's and Robinson's votes! Brilliant idea! The Palladium didn't add Robinson's and Watson's votes and find there was a majority of 16,564 voters in Indiana who did not want New. Neither one was the majority candidate. And at the same time, Watson got more first choice votes in Wayne county than New.

Will H. Hays most certainly endeared himself to supporters of James E. Watson when he announced that he would not leap into the race for the short term to succeed Senator B. F. Shively. It was undoubtedly a wise decision for Mr. Hays. He is young both in years and political activity in the state and the future holds much in store for him. The majority of the people have some sense of fair play.

The Indianapolis News undertook to run the Democratic party in Indiana, failed and is now trying to ruin it. The News is apparently going a trial heat in the Republican party now, with the same end in view, but the leaders of the Republican party in the state are undoubtedly too shrewd to pay any attention to the siren song.

NO DECISION WITHIN A WEEK

Not Expected Vote on Army Bills Can be Obtained Before Seven Days at Least

CHIEF BUSINESS IN CONGRESS

Only One Voice Raised Against Military Preparedness as a National Policy

Washington, March 18.—The most striking thing about the consideration of the army bills in congress which has held the center of the stage since yesterday afternoon, is the fact that only one voice has been raised against military preparedness as a national policy; that of Meyer London of New York, the lone Socialist member of congress.

Amendments to be offered were announced however, and prospects of passing the bill by tonight vanished. It may be a week before a vote is taken.

Congress plunged into national defense legislation. Halting nearly all other business both the senate and house began actual work on army reorganization yesterday afternoon.

The house began debate on the army bill while in the senate the army bill was formerly launched when Senator Chamberlain reported his bill from the committee and announced he would call it up for consideration Monday.

"On a question of this character all America should stand together," was Chairman Hays opening remark as spokesman for the administration in the house. He called it a "reasonable measure."

"It will meet with opposition and those opposed to any defensive legislation and those who think they have not gone far enough," said Hays.

"We have a volunteer system in this country and we have to deal with conditions as they are."

"To have an army of 200,000 men would mean compulsory service. I do not think the country would accept this."

"An army of 250,000 would cost $750,000,000 a year," said Hays. "I do not believe congress is ready to saddle this expense on the country in time of peace. If this bill passes there will be at all times in United States about 50,000 men; the others will be in our possessions. At no time have we had 100,000 men in the army."

What Italy Has Done in the War

The more spectacular operations of some of the other Allies have partly obscured Italy's part in the present war in the eyes of the American public. Italy's anomalous position in being at war with Austria and at peace with Germany has, besides, produced distrust in some of the allied capitals, and the warmth of feeling evoked by Italy's siding with the Entente has given way to a chilled current of doubt and suspicion. Many are asking the question "Why has Italy not declared war on Germany?" or "Why has she not joined France and England in their expeditions in the Near East?"

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for March 18th there is a very illuminating article consisting of excerpts from the British press and translations from French and Italian papers which bring out in a strong light the very important part that Italy has played and is playing in the war.

Other leading articles that will make this number of "The Digest" of great interest are:

All hails are heard in THE LITERARY DIGEST, as the defenders of Allies and Teutons present their respective sides. The readers of this non-partizan weekly are blinded to no phase of the war's development. Both sides are allowed to offer their cases for approval and Digest readers can judge for themselves without prejudice and with an accurate understanding of every view-point. The same policy of impartial fairness governs THE LITERARY DIGEST'S reports of all our own national problems, both domestic and foreign. Excerpts are taken from the editorial press all over the country to explain every different conception. The man who wants a real understanding of every question of public interest will value the complete information in THE LITERARY DIGEST, regardless of his personal sympathies.

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as radical designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer. Mr. A. H. Schlichte. J. B. SCHRICHTER SONS MONUMENTS 117-121 S. MAIN ST.

Mar. 22, 1915. "I have divided my bottle of Peruna with people many times. It always helps."

The above quotations give a vague glimpse of the correspondence we have had with Mrs. Tanner since 1899. Our files, which cover twenty-five years, include many similar correspondents.

WHICH IS BETTER?

A Shoe at a Price or a Shoe of Quality? What does it matter if you pay a few cents per pair more for shoes, and get three months more service on that shoe?

We hear a great deal nowadays about shoes at a price. Any shoe store can sell shoes at a price. That is no trick. It is shoes of quality that stand out so prominent in the long run. Shoes that will give the wearer such satisfaction that they will come back for another pair.

The New Spring Shoes are coming in—Try us for a pair of the long wearing kind.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

TRUST the judgment of that greatest of all critics—the American public—and you can't go wrong.

You have noticed, no doubt, that already the Hudson's wonderful new car has received its name from discriminating motorists. They call it simply "THE Super-Six."

People don't say "The HUDSON Super-Six." They at once recognized the fact that here was a car different from anything before known. It is not merely a new Hudson, it is a new idea, a new principle, an absolutely new invention. It stands alone and apart from every other car, and every other motor.

Note the conversation of people you run across day by day. Listen to motorists in the club, the garage, the smoking-car, on the street, in their homes. Observe the language of manufacturers of and dealers in other cars. See how THE Super-Six dominates. See how instantly it is recognized. Notice that no one needs the prefix of Hudson before the name. It is known already the world over as "THE Super-Six," a new discovery, a new invention, the greatest of all present automobile engineering feats.

When a graceful, powerful, brilliant car slips easily by other cars on city streets and country roads the driver of the losing car will apologize for "eating dust," for being passed on the hills or in difficult traffic, by saying "It can't be helped." That was a Super-Six.

Hereafter you will find—note this prediction—that in speed and endurance contests, on level road or steep hill climb drivers will say: "I can pass everything on the road, climb better on the hills, go through traffic easier than any car I know—except one."

That one is THE SUPER SIX!

CLASS PITCH-IN SUPPER

One hundred and twenty-five members of Dr. C. H. Gilbert's Sunday School class of the Christian church dined together last evening when they enjoyed a pitch-in supper in the church basement. The long tables where the guests were seated were laden with an elaborate supper. The supper was made more enjoyable by the strains of music that floated in the room from the pretty music furnished by the Sunday School orchestra. Mrs. Derby Green sang a beautiful solo "Mother Machree." Sociability featured the hours following when the ladies and their families joined together in one of their usual good times.

The members of the Falmouth basketball team and their lady friends were guests last evening at a dinner party given by Dr. and Mrs. Walther at Glenwood. The supper was served in buffet style to the 30 guests who filled their plates at the laden table. Two courses comprised the bounteous dinner. Reading, given by Miss Mary Hinchman, piano solos, by Miss Dora Saxon, and duets by Curtis and Lavone Scholl were numbers on the informal program, which was furnished. The guests, enjoyed several exciting card games before the delightful affair drew to a close. The hostess was graciously assisted by Mrs. Newhouse and Mrs. Britt during the evening.

ST. PATRICK'S DANCE

All the jollity and fun which characterizes the celebration of St. Patrick's day, overflowed last evening at the dance given in the Phi Delta Theta hall by Dale Fisher. The numerous out-of-town guests soon became acquainted and entered into the informality of the affair. Sherman's Society orchestra furnished good music which was made especially so with the feature dances in which Dr. Hale Pearsey sang several cabaret solos. There were about thirty-five couples enjoying this affair and among them the Misses Huldah Pepper, Grace and Mable Cain, Dorothy Voltz, and Corinne Shrader, Elsie Barnard, of Connersville; Ruth Harvey, Marie Foster of Newcastle; Mrs. Mary Doyle of Indianapolis; Erman Schmidt and James Medlin of Richmond; Fred Sharp of Newcastle; Harry Williams of Connersville, and Darrel Wendling of Indianapolis.

SERIES OF PARTIES

In two successive evenings the members of the Thornberry Club were royally entertained at the pretty country homes of two of their members. And on Thursday evening, practically the same company of guests were entertained at the home of Samuel Mahan. Another evening of merriment was furnished for the guests. Those who attended one or both of these affairs are Mr. and Mrs. Alva Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hilligoss, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shockey, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Pate, the Misses Mildred Hungerford, Frances Mull, Luella Maury, Mary Hungerford, Frances Thompson, Ida Redden, Bertha Halterman, Lena Hungerford, Elvira Mull, Louisa Mahan, Fannie Redden, Maxine Hungerford, Letha Hungerford, Nellie Mull, Thelma Shockey, Rema Mahan, Edith Hungerford, Vivian Kemple, Nellie Myers and Lot Redden, Watson Miller, Paul Hungerford, Harry Mull, Clarence Weidner, Cecil Barlow, Reed Mull, Henry Maury, Robert Hasty, Frank Barlow, William English, Bert Redden, Russell Orme, Newton Halterman, Cuban Downs, Foster Hilligoss, Earl Hungerford, Fred Mahan, Herman Hilligoss, Howard Hungerford, Berlin Pate, Frank Webb, and Glen Hungerford, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hasty, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kellam, Mr. and

CALICO BALL

The novel and unique plans which were so cleverly worked out at the Calico Ball given by the ladies of the Social Club last evening was one of the factors in the dance which was a round of fun from beginning to end. The small packages which the gentlemen received upon entering the dance hall was found to contain neckties made of fabrics which looked surprisingly familiar, and their partners for the grand march was the lady whose frock matched the tie. Frank Capp, president of the club for the past year, and his partner Miss Helene Whitesides of Franklin, who according to the rule was gown in a simple pink Norfolk suit, led off in the grand march. The unusual scene of the ladies in fresh and attractive spring dresses of calicos, and lawns instead of evening gowns was a pretty one as they and their partners made the figures in the grand march. With their customary life and vim, Mitchell's orchestra played for the program of dances. Favor dances featured the evening, one of the cleverest of which found the men behind a black curtain with only their shoes displayed. From these, the ladies chose their partners. In another, tiny favors of fans, St. Patrick's Day souvenirs and other trinkets were passed out in pairs and matched for partners. A one course supper was served in the dining room adjoining the dance hall during the series of dances. Those coming form a distance for this charming affair were the Misses Helene Whitesides, of Franklin; Jeannette Clark, of Muncie; Laura Goyert, of Greensburg; Miller Hamilton, of Indianapolis; Ed Doll, of Connersville; Don Miller, of Anderson; John

LONTZ KNIFED; LEAVES HIS PARTY

Late Democratic Candidate For Congressional Nomination in District is "Sore."

MANY TO SUPPORT COMSTOCK

Large Number of Democrats Who Were Lontz Boosters Will Form Club For Opponent

That John M. Lontz of Richmond, "knifed," as his friends charge, by Democratic leaders in the sixth district in his race with Finly Gray for the congressional nomination, after much pressure was brought to bear to get him into the contest, is no longer affiliated with the Democratic party is the statement made in Friday's Richmond Palladium. It says the announcement was made by some close friends of Lontz, who is now touring the south. Continuing the Palladium says:

It was also announced that henceforth Mr. Lontz will be enrolled in the ranks of Wayne county's impressive army of independent voters.

It has also been learned that quite a number of Democrats who supported Mr. Lontz in the primary contest are to follow his example in bidding a fond farewell to the party they have hitherto loyally supported and worked for. Plans are now on foot for the organization of what is to be known as the Independent Democratic Comstock club, to support the candidacy of Judge D. W. Comstock, Republican congressional nominee against Finly Gray in the fall campaign.

Friends of Mr. Lontz justify his action in severing his connections with the Democratic party. One of his supporters said today:

"For years Mr. Lontz has given his time and his money freely to the support of the Democratic party in Wayne county. He has cheerfully paid Democratic campaign deficits out of his own pocket, time after time; year after year he has taken much time from his business affairs to campaign for his party's candidates and not once did he ask a favor of the party whose interests he held so close to his heart. He cherished no personal political ambitions.

"Early this winter a number of leading Wayne county candidates began to exercise pressure on Mr. Lontz to induce him to contest against Finly Gray for the Democratic nomination. Mr. Lontz agreed with them that Gray discredited his party and that his renomination would mean certain Democratic defeat in the district next fall but he flatly refused to be a candidate against him. Mr. Lontz pointed out that he had no desire to go to congress, that his family opposed his entering into politics, and that his business interests demanded his personal attention.

"The pressure was not relaxed, however. He was bombarded with requests for a reconsideration of his decision. The climax came when a formal demand, signed by John Harper, Democratic county chairman, was served upon him. In this communication it was pointed out to him

try, but is thirteen countries, mined with gold, many of them have diamond and silver mines, great forests of hardwood and you can't imagine the great herds of stocks that are raised there. Argentina alone has 62 million head of cattle."

The Rev. M. Taylor dwelt upon the vast wealth of South America, showing there is more unexplored territory in that continent than all the rest of the world. "They say the Amazon river is in a certain place and they don't know anything about it. The next president that hasn't anything to do could easily discover another river down there and become famous. Too, all the territory there is in a livable zone and they can raise any kind of plants whether they demand hot houses or not," he declared.

"Why do I dwell upon the weather of this place? Because the eyes of the world are upon it. People are flocking there from all corners of the globe. There will soon be an immense population there and the religion is soon to be settled. In some districts cannibalism is still practiced, in others the natives are semi-civilized and pray to a bonconstrictor as you do to Jesus Christ; while in the cities, which are as wealthy and modern as any American city, the women can cut a dress and a dozen handkerchiefs from a yard of cloth as easily as one of you women could, which shows they are fast becoming civilized.

The Rev. Taylor then showed the terrible way in which Christianity was represented to these people; that it was a compliment to say to them, "I am delighted to hear you are not a Christian," for Christian in the sense they see it illustrated is the kind that has "ruined homes, robbed the hearts of wives of children of their education. It is merely baptized paganism. We have to tell the people that the Bible stands for sanity, and will restore to them the things that their religion has robbed them of. These infidels are glad and ready to answer the call of their hungry hearts and come to Jesus Christ if they can see religion as it really is." Following this, stereopticon slides representing conditions and types of people in South America were shown.

In his address, Dr. Fred Woods who is a returned missionary from India told some very pathetic stories of his experiences in the foreign field. He dwelt upon his regret at hearing that some women in this country were beginning to doubt the Bible, while he had seen that only the Bible could save the heathen women. He told of the eagerness of the heathens to hear Jesus Christ and to spread it to their friends. His story was a vivid and convincing one.

WATSON TREND

of my gratitude and affection. This evidence of friendship means more to me than all else. My word to them and my sincerest wish is that they all join with me in bringing the complete Republican victory which is so important for the country's welfare.

As further indication of the sentiment that was crystallizing for Watson, the following is cited from the Liberty Herald, as an example of the belief in many quarters that Watson should be the nominee:

Union County Republicans are going on record by signing a petition to the State Central Committee, wherein they state they believe, it to be for the best interests of the party to nominate Harry S. New for the long term and James E. Watson for the short term, as Indiana representatives in the United States Senate.
This is the expression of opinion from this county for both New and Watson adherents here. This county and district were in favor of Mr. Watson's nomination, and now that the death of Senator Shively makes two nominations necessary, Mr. Watson's claims are entitled to due consideration.

We want New and Watson, both in the senate. They made a magnificent race, and on the face of returns both have a right to go before the state convention.

In all fairness and justice, and according to the wording of the primary law, no nomination to the senate was made at the recent election.

The candidacy of Mr. Will H.
Hays, chairman of the State Committee, is incipient, and is regarded as ill-advised in this quarter. A candidate for the senate must first be considered by the people of the state, and the fact that Mr. Hays' name has not been in the minds of the people for the high office of senator, his claims, worthy as they are, can not be seriously considered, and party interests demand his elimination.

The wonderful speaking campaign of James E. Watson, and the vote that was given him, is evidence of the people's wishes, and now that it is possible to do so, let the Republicans nominate Mr. New for the long term and Mr. Watson for the short term, and thus smooth out all wrinkles and uncertainties, and elect both men in November.

The Republicans of Indiana will take care of Will Hays in the future.
Indiana went Republican at the recent primary, and will go stronger still in November.

ROMANCE OF TEXAS GIRL

nia. She is quite comely and has attracted attention not only because of her looks, but from the fact that she is a girl who traveled all of that great distance to marry.

It is stated that she still maintains hopes that Derby Kiser will put in his appearance here and that the wedding will be carried out as planned. There are others, however, who believe that Miss Frans was duped into coming here and that Kiser never really had any intentions of coming here to marry her. His present whereabouts are unknown. Miss Frans has wired to him that she has arrived here safely, but so far has not received an answer to her message.

Upon arrival here she visited the court house, inquiring of the Kiser family. She was put in communication with one family of Kisers, but they were not Derby's people. She also inquired about some property Derby Kiser has here. The property in question is in litigation and he has no title to it. Miss Frans, while

Chevrolet Plans for 460
Daily

The production of the Chevrolet Motor Co., which this month is on a basis of 230 cars a day, is to be increased monthly until it reaches 460 a day by August 1st, according to W.
C. Durant, president of the company.
Arrangements have been completed for the erection of a large axle plant.
Work on the new assembling plant and on the extension of the motor plant will be hastened. The contract for the erection of the assembling plant in Oakland, Cal., has been signed, and this plant is expected to be ready in the spring. About 100 homes for workmen also will be put up in Flint, by the Chevrolet company in order to be able to increase its working force to the mark set.

All motors, axles and nearly all the other parts needed in the assembling of the cars will be made in Flint, while the plants in New York, St. Louis, Tarrytown, N. Y., Oakland and Owasha, Ont., only will assemble cars.

Shipments made by Chevrolet Motor Company Plants for week ending March 4th, 1916, were 1121 cars.
Chevrolet cars are on display at our sales room, 202 West Second St.
